RUTH GETS 20TH HOME RUN; HOLDS DETROIT TO FEW HITS

Sluggish Replaced on Mound in Fifth By Mays When Tigers Get Four.

POLO GROUNDS, June 13.—Babe Ruth slammed out his twentieth home run of the season in the third inning of the Yankees-Detroit game this afternoon. The bases were unoccupied when Ruth hit his circuit shot.

It was the 1224 four-base smash for Ruth since he broke into the big leagues and was the fourth day in succession he had connected for a clean-up wallop.

In addition to adding another homer to his credit Ruth occupied the mound for the Yankees. He turned the Tigers back in the first two innings without a hit, the first safe wallop being made off his delivery in the third when Hellman singled.

Ruth was not the only home run hitter, however. The Yankees scored one run in the first on short wallop but in the second with one man on Hawks hit the ball to deep center field for a clean up.

In the third after Ruth got his home run and with one man on base Frank Baker sent the ball into the right field stand, adding two more to the Yankees total and making the count six to nothing.

Wally Schang, the home team's star catcher was hit on the wrist in this stanza and was compelled to leave the game. He was replaced by Hoffman.

Detroit got to Ruth's offerings four

RALCO, AT 1 TO 2, WINS THE HARLEM SELLING STAKES

Islip Stable Entry Is First by Two Lengths in Feature Race at Belmont.

By Vincent Treanor.

RACE TRACK, BELMONT PARK, June 13.—Ralco, the favorite, at 1 to 2 in the Harlem Selling Stakes, came right back with another good performance when he won the feature of this afternoon's card. He ran like an odds-on favorite. Keogh kept him off the pace of Superwoman until well into the stretch and then let him race.

At the end he was a comfortable winner in a mild drive from Superwoman. The latter showed a nice race and held on gamely to beat Ruff Rang for the place. Devil Dog looked a sure thing for third but Ralco and Ruff Rang saved ground on the straight and beat him for the show.

Wholesale scratching in the opening event left a field of ten to race. Major Parks was at almost prohibitive odds and won easily. He went to the front shortly after the barrier went up and was never headed. Ruff Rang followed him all the way and landed the place money. Hutchinson, third for the greater part of the seven furlongs weakened at the end, losing the show money to Gloomy Gus, who closed with a rush.

The second favorite to score was The Trout in the steeplechase. He had to make up an acre of ground to catch Gen. Wood, who went out to make a runaway race of it, only to quit badly after going three-quarters of the route. Houdini moved up strong, leaving the backstretch and set sail for the front.

He made a great bid, but The Trout outran him on the flat. Val Spar, the best of the rest, was third.

Buddy Ennor, reinstated after his ten-day suspension, rode his first winner in a long while when he got Elected H. home in the Queens Handicap. Buddy seemed to have all his old-time ability. He beat the gate and set the pace all the way. Flamingo, Lady Gertrude and Genie W. followed, took turns chasing him, but Buddy kept the mare safely in front. At the end she won by two lengths. Genie W. well played, stuck it out to save the place from Chimperton. Flamingo, with the worst of the weights, went back in the betting and ran accordingly.

FIVE HELD FOR KIDNAPPING VAROTTA BOY, WHO WAS FOUND DROWNED IN HUDSON RIVER

Bail Fixed at $100,000 for Each—To Be Reindicted for Murder as Soon as Grand Jury Can Reach the Case—Five More Are Under Arrest

The five men under indictment for kidnapping little Giuseppe Varotta, whose body was found in the Hudson near Piermont Saturday afternoon, are to be re-indicted as murderers as soon as the Grand Jury can act. Assistant District Attorney Sullivan so notified Judge McIntyre in General Sessions to-day when the five were arraigned for pleading. Nothing was said in the court of the five other prisoners made by the police since the finding of the child's body.

Bail for the five was fixed by Judge McIntyre at $100,000 each. Judge McIntyre asked Mr. Sullivan to let him know if any one of them offered to furnish bail, saying in that event he would increase it until it was effectively prohibitive and, of course, the moment the Grand Jury charged them with murder they would be disqualified from gaining their liberty on any bond whatever.

LATEST NEWS—5 P. M.

WIFE IN HOSPITAL, HUSBAND ILL, KILLS HIMSELF BY GAS.

Charles Johnson, thirty-five, a conductor for the Fifth Avenue Coach Company, was found dead in bed this afternoon in his home on the third floor of No. 407 West 29th Street. He had committed suicide by inhaling gas and had been dead since Friday.

The man's wife is in St. Luke's Hospital where she was operated upon on Friday for mastoiditis. His two children were with his mother, Johnson, who had been ill, left two notes saying he could stand it no longer and asking forgiveness.

"The principal evidence against these men," retorted Mr. Sullivan, "was obtained by a woman detective, Mrs. Nicoletti. Sprey counsel does not pretend she obtained it by beating them. Moreover, the District Attorney has proof that this crime was committed by members of a band who have terrorized Italian colonies along the Hudson and in this city by blackmail for years. He has proof that this little boy was drowned before these men were arrested and before the last demand for money for his return was made. Finally, this is the first time in which kidnappers have carried out their threat to kill their victims."

While the size of his fortune is not known in the profession he was generally credited as being worth at least a million dollars.

HECTOR HAVEMEYER SUED BY HIS WIFE FOR SEPARATION.

Mrs. Ray Russell Havemeyer filed the summons and complaint to-day in a suit for separation from her husband, Hector H. Havemeyer. The papers indicate that he was served at No. 2880 Broadway.

Those escaping the first fire were pursued and shot down. The loot, which is said to have been carried by the soldiers, was recovered.

LET US DO LYNNING IF ANY IS TO BE DONE NEGROES REQUEST

MOUNT HOLLY, N. J., June 13.—County prosecutor J. H. Kelsey of Burlington County is apprehensive over the state of the public mind in Moorestown resulting from the murder of seven-year-old Mathilda Russo and the disappearance of Louis Lively, the negro, under whose cellar floor the child's body was found on Friday.

Mr. Kelsey said he found public sentiment veering in the direction of racial antagonism. He fears that trouble may result unless cool heads dominate the community.

Mr. Kelsey announced that he had been waited on by a delegation of negroes from Burlington County who offered to lend him every aid in their power to apprehend Lively, and who further stated that, if there is to be a lynching of Lively, they wanted the privilege of doing the job. The crime, they said, was a blot on the good name of the negro race and they wanted nothing better than a chance to remove it.

SPEECH GARBLED AND MISLEADING, IS SIMS'S ANSWER

GEORGETOWN, 1921, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York Evening World).

LONDON, June 13.—Admiral Sims has declined to comment on Secretary of the Navy Denby's cancellation of the remainder of his leave of absence and ordering him to report as soon as possible in Washington.

He left his hotel early in order to fulfill a day of crowded social engagements. He has no further public speaking engagements before his departure from England on Wednesday, and there is nothing to indicate that he intends adding anything to his side of the departmental incident until his return to America.

The Admiral told an interviewer that he believed Secretary Denby's second message had been despatched, because of Admiral Sims's delayed response to the first cablegram asking if he had been correctly quoted in his address here last week, in which he criticized Americans in sympathy with the Irish Republic. Admiral Sims insisted that the delay in his reply was due only to delay in transmission, and declared that he had made his reply within an hour after receipt of the cablegram.
